

THE TALENTS

Read Matthew 25:14-30. Fill in the blanks below.

“ It will be like a man going on a who entrusted his servants with his property. To one he gave five talents, to another two, to another one, each according to his ability. Then he went away. He who had received five talents went at once and traded with them, and made five more. He who had two talents made two talents more. But he who had received one talent dug in the ground and hid his master's money. After a long time, their master came and settled accounts with them. He who received five talents came forward, bringing five talents more, saying, 'Master, you delivered to me five talents; here, I have made five talents more.' His master said to him, 'Well done, good and faithful You have been faithful over a little; I will set you over much. Enter into the joy of your master.' He who had two talents came forward, saying, '....., you delivered to me two talents; here, I have made two talents more.' His master said to him, 'Well done, good and servant. You have been faithful over a little; I will set you over much. Enter into the joy of your master.' He who had received the one talent came forward, saying, 'Master, I knew you to be a hard man, where you did not sow, and gathering where you scattered no seed, so I was afraid and hid your talent in the ground. Here, you have what is yours.' His master said, 'You and slothful servant! You knew that I reap where I have not sown and gather where I scattered no seed? You should have my money with the bankers and at my coming I should have received what was mine with interest. Take the talent from him and give it to him who has ten talents. For everyone who has will more be given, and he will have an abundance. But from the one who has not, even what he has will be taken away. Cast the worthless servant into the outer darkness where there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth.' ”
