

MARNUS GREYLING

THE PARKTOWN SINGERS

If you like jazz, swing or madrigals coupled with a concert in a spectacular old Randlord Mansion in the beautiful surrounds of Westcliff, then you cannot afford to miss this fantastic concert coming up this weekend.

The Parktown Singers, along with their musical director Marnus Greyling, will present you with a delightful programme of music which includes jazz standards, familiar tunes from The Beatles, quirky and humorous English madrigals, and much more! The concert will also include a wonderful selection of wine and excellent canapés by our fabulous caterer, Jenny Sharland. All this will take place in the sublime and serene setting of Glenshiel, a gorgeous old heritage mansion in the heart of the city of gold, showcasing some of the best views of Johannesburg. I hope you will be able to join us there!
